Supreme Court, U.S
FILED
MAR 19 2004
OFFICE OF THE CLERK

78

No. 02-1624

IN THE

Supreme Court of the United States

ELK GROVE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT AND DAVID W. GORDON, Petitioners,

v.

MICHAEL A. NEWDOW,

Respondent.

On Writ of Certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit

SUPPLEMENT TO ADD SIGNATORIES TO BRIEF AMICUS CURIAE OF BARBARA A. McGRAW IN SUPPORT OF AFFIRMANCE

Barbara A. McGraw
Counsel of Record
Saint Mary's College of California
1928 Saint Mary's Road
Moraga, CA 94556

March 17, 2004

BEST AVAILABLE COPY

SUPPLEMENT TO THE AMICUS CURIAE BRIEF OF BARBARA A. McGRAW IN SUPPORT OF AFFIRMANCE

The following, whose interest in this case is in alignment with that originally stated in "Interest of Amicus Curiae," are hereby added as signatories:

Robert S. Ellwood received his Ph.D. in the History of Religion from the University of Chicago in 1967. He is Distinguished Professor Emeritus, Department of Religious Studies, University of Southern California and author of numerous books and articles on religion, including books on religion in America, such as 1950: Crossroads of American Religious Life (Presbyterian Pub. Corp., 2000); Religious and Spiritual Groups in Modern America, 2nd ed. (Pearson Education, 1998) with co-author; Sixties Spiritual Awakening: American Religion Moving from Modern to Postmodern (Rutgers University Press, 1994); Alternative Altars: Unconventional and Eastern Spirituality in America (University of Chicago Press, 1981).

Paul A. Djupe received his Ph.D. in Political Science from Washington University in St. Louis in 1997. He is Chair of the American Political Science Association Division on Religion and Politics and is Assistant Professor Political Science, Denison University. He writes about the ways in which religion affects the political engagement of citizens. His works include The Prophetic Pulpit: Clergy, Churches, and Communities in American Politics (Roman & Littlefield, 2003) with co-author; The Encyclopedia of American Religion and Politics (Facts on File, 2003), with co-editor; and Religious Institutions and Minor Parties in the United States (Praeger Publishers, 1999), with co-authors.

Phillip E. Hammond received his Ph.D. in the Sociology of Religion from Columbia University in 1960. He is D.

Mackenzie Brown Professor Emeritus, Department of Religious Studies, University of California, Santa Barbara and the author of many books and articles, including books on church/state jurisprudence in the United States, such as With Liberty For All: Freedom of Religion in the United States (Westminster John Knox Press, 1998) and, with co-authors, Religion On Trial (AltaMira Press, forthcoming 2004), and on religion in America, such as Soka Gakkai in America: Accommodation and Conversion (Oxford University Press, 1999) with co-author.

M.A. Muqtedar Khan received his Ph.D. in International Relations and Political Philosophy from Georgetown University in 2000 and his M.B.A. from Bombay University in 1989. His research interests include the study of Islam and politics in America. He is the author of American Muslims: Bridging Faith and Freedom (Amana Publications, 2002) and Jihad for Jerusalem: Identity and Strategy in International Politics (Praeger Publications, 2004). He is Non-Resident Fellow at The Brookings Institution and is the Director of the International Studies Program and Chair, Political Science Department at Adrian College, Michigan.

David W. Machacek received his Ph.D. in Religious Studies from the University of California, Santa Barbara in 1998. He is Resident Fellow and Visiting Assistant Professor at the Greenberg Center for the Study of Religion in Public Life, Trinity College. His research interests include church/state issues and religion in America and his works include Religion on Trial (Alta Mira Press, forthcoming 2004) with co-authors and Soka Gakkai in America: Accommodation and Conversion (Oxford University Press, 1999) with co-author.

Eric Michael Mazur received his Ph.D. in Religious Studies from the University of California, Santa Barbara in 1997. He is Co-Chair of the Religious Freedom, Public Life, and the State Group (formerly the Church/State Group) of the American Academy of Religion, is Associate Professor of Religion, Bucknell University, and has written on religion and American culture and on religion and law. His works include The Americanization of Religious Minorities: Confronting the Constitutional Order (Johns Hopkins Press, 1999) and, with co-authors, Religion on Trial (Alta Mira Press, forthcoming 2004).

Bruce Prescott received his Masters of Divinity Degree (1978) and Ph.D. in Theology (1986), both from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is Executive Director of the Mainstream Oklahoma Baptists and is editor of Mainstream Messenger a publication of the Mainstream Oklahoma Baptists.

Kenneth D. Wald received his Ph.D. in Political Science from Washington University in St. Louis in 1976. He is Research Foundation Professor of Political Science and Director of the Center for Jewish Studies, University of Florida. His research interest is religion and politics, and his many works include Religion and Politics in the United States, 4th ed. (St. Martins Press, 2003) and The Politics of Cultural Differences (Princeton University Press, 2002), with co-authors. Professor Wald has served as Chair of the American Political Science Association Division on Religion and Politics and has been a speaker throughout Europe and in Israel on the subject of religious liberty in the United States and, at the invitation of the U.S. State Department, has toured China to speak about the tradition of religious liberty in the United States.

All Amici, including the original signatory Barbara A. McGraw, have signed as individuals and not on behalf of the institutions with which they are affiliated.